Britain's Stand.

London, July 2. Commenting on the Washington statement regarding the early consideration of extra-territorial rights in China, the Daily Telegraph's diplomatic correspondent gathers that Peking has been clearly informed that not until the anti-foreign movement has subsided and the Shanghai and other incidents have been satisfactorily settled can wider issues like territorial rights be discussed.

The correspondent congratulates the British Government on its firm attitude which should reassure our anxious threatened colonies in China and accords with the requirements of British security and prestige throughout the Orient. The correspondent says it is a fitting reply to the Waichaopu's 13-point programme. He points out that Mr. Wong's argument couched in a more moderate tone would certainly be very eloquent, but unfortunately it ignores the anarchy ruling in China and the helplessness of the Administration as regards acts of murder and vandalism. 🕙 The correspondent concludes by hoping that Mr. Chamberlain's standpoint will be upheld against any suggestions of Powers having less at stake than Britain for untimely concessions to Peking as long as the Chinese authorities allow the present disorders to continue unchecked.

To-day's strike news is less reassuring, the most serious development being the defection of the remaining delivery clearance employees at the Office. Postal Workers.

The delay in the arrival of the s.s. Sardinia yesterday led many to believe that a large number of the Post Office employees had left work and that it would be a question of having to fetch the mail from the Post Office.

As a matter of fact a few of the workers absented themselves yesterday morning although it was not known whether their action had anything to do with the strike. The work they had been doing was not of the most important and the Post Office appears to be carrying on quite normally. Refused To Work. Four Chinese members of the crew of the s.s. Egremont Castle were sentenced to a month's Imprisonment yesterday at the Marine Court for failing to obey the orders of the Chief Officer.

Shortly after the ship arrived being found. Thousands of these in harbour the crew were engaged in rigging derricks for the working of cargo. Several members of the crew refused to carry on with the work and Captain J. Cann, the master, addressed them explaining the probable consequences of their action. The men then returned to duty with the exception of the defendants. This was the evidence given against them by Captain Cann which the defendants did not contest, offering no defence at all.

AT WIMBLEDON.

EMPIRE'S LAST SINGLES HOPE DEFEATED.

"TRACIC FAILURE."

(Reuter's Service.)

London, July 2.

At Wimbledon, the men's semifinal day failed to attract such a huge crowd as yesterday. Women were again in the majority making the centre-court an arena of kaleidoscope colour.

In the semi-final of the men's singles, R. Lacoste (France) beat .J. O. Anderson (Australia), "6-4,

The Empire's last hope in the singles went down in straight sets through the tragic failure of a mighty forehand against an infallible backhand. The only chances of victory wer when Anderson led 30-love.at all in the first set and 5-4 in the second set. Lacoste was more speedy, drove with superb judgment, often hitting the back-line and retrieved superhumanly in the final set. Both served magnificently though Lacoste had the advantage here. It was a baseline duel throughout.

Holder in Final.

In the semi-final of the men's singles, Jean Borotra (holder) beat Cochet (both of France) by 5-7, 8-6, 6-4, 6-1.

Borotra was very unsteady at only-London June 4). the start and under-hitting. At 5 all Cochet broke through the champion's service and then won his own service for the first set. The second set produced brilliant tennis; Borotra served magnificently, both skimmed the net with fast drives. Cochet was superb with his backhand and passing shots and he often beat the champion. In the third set the champion was always attacking and going to the net at every opportunity. Cochet was at the baseline and unable to pass his ubiquitous compatriot and finally tired badly. [Borotra and Lacoste met in the final last year after Vincent Richards had gone down. This year Richards did not compete. Anderson did not play last year but he was favourite this year.]

American Doubles Success. In the fourth round of the men's doubles, Casey and Hennessey beat the Britishers Crawford and Fisher, 6-4, 4-6, 6-0, 6-1 and enter the semi-final.

The Americans hardly warmed defeating Crawford and Fisher very easily, Casey had a terrific service and Hennessey was | tius, E. & S. Africa, Aden, Egypt very nimble in his net-work. In the fourth round of the mixed doubles De Morpurgo and Miss Ryan entered the semifinal, defeating Berger and Miss Reid Thomas, 6-4, 6-3.
